

Let's Get Messy!

Parents and children (age 9 months - 5 years) are invited to explore the art-making process together. These single-class, no-commitment workshops focus on how the arts engage children physically, cognitively, and socially.

Each workshop will have an activity based around a different artist or technique, so keep coming back! All materials provided. Just bring your kids, your imagination, and a little bit of patience.

Price: $15 per child
